Collaboration Policy

While we encourage discussion about problems and ideas, nothing can be taken away from any such discussion. Your write-ups must be entirely your own unless otherwise specified. No collaboration is allowed on exams. The only references you can use are your own notes taken in class, the class textbook, and the course website. Using any other source including online sources (e.g. Wikipedia) is not permitted.

You must sign and turn in this document to the cs157 handin bin or to a TA before you will be able to turn in an assignment. We recommend that you sign and turn this in as soon as possible.

Please write legibly.
